FEDERAL ELECTION 2019 CANDIDATE STATEMENT

email: tim.bohm@2b.com.au
website: www.timbohm.com

My name is TIM BOHM and I am a registered candidate in the forthcoming Federal Election for a House of Representatives seat of Canberra.

I am an Independent.

This is why I believe I am qualified to be a parliamentarian. (50 words or less)

I have over 15 years of experience of running a business in Canberra with local and national clients. This combined with vast experience on community boards and organisations have left me with the skills, know how to represent the electorate.

If elected, this is how I will engage with, consult and report to my electorate during my term in parliament. (100 words or less)

I will implement direct democracy for everyone in the electorate on all key issues and bills via a secure online platform.

This is my personal position on the following issues: (add a brief comment if you wish)

A federal independent commission against corruption, integrity commission or similar body: Support/Oppose/Uncertain

- I support a federal independent corruption or integrity commission
- I support open parliamentarian diaries /real-time lobbyist and visitor register.
- I support real-time reporting of all donations and in-kind electoral and related support.
- I electoral reforms including support caps on political / electioneering related donations — to individuals and small amounts.
- I support the ACT to have the full spectrum of legislative powers available to the states.

I will abide by the Canberra Alliance Charter of Democratic Commitments as follows (Amend items if you wish, in italics)

1. I will at all times tell the truth to the citizens and voters of Canberra and be honest in all aspects of my work as an elected representative of the Australian people.
2. I will fully disclose and make public the sources and value of all political funding donations, contributions, and gifts public and private in line with legal requirements.
3. I undertake to be fair, ethical, compassionate and diligent in serving my electorate and the nation at all times, and to uphold the Australian value of "a fair go for all".
4. I will promote and support participatory and deliberative methods for policy, planning and legislative decisions, as appropriate and practical. This should include better use of new technology.
5. I will place the public interest ahead of personal interests.
6. I will never abuse or misuse the allowances, subsidies, concessions and privileges accorded to me by the people of the ACT in my role as an elected representative.
