

2025 Questions for the candidates

1. How do you intend to genuinely involve us in defining what matters for us and engage us in various decision-making processes?
2. How will you provide feedback to us on how and what you've contributed to the public good?
3. How will you represent us differently to the current representative or, as the sitting member, what changes will you make if re-elected?